Allison,

This looks great to me and I do think you are on the right track. I did notice one typo (designated uses not designated used) while reading through this document.

Cheers,

Jayne

Subject: Review: Rolled up Public Comments to Respond To

All--

I'm starting to go through the public comments and develop some overarching summary comments that capture all of the individual input we received. I've developed a few for some of the "general" comments and would be interested in feedback to make sure I'm on the right track before going too far.

I've got someone else in my office (with a law background) helping to go through and roll up the comments into something we'll be able to respond to.

Thanks for the early feedback.

Allison
